

DISCIPLESHIP STRATEGY

WHO

THE PEOPLE WHO WE WILL DISCIPLE

5,000 people attend Foundations
-2 to +2 is our target for the weekends

- 4 Great Commission Living // Reproducing Disciples
Continual longing for spiritual growth
- 3 Church becomes less me centered but we centered
In authentic Christ centered community
- 2 Learning basics of their faith & discover giftings
Starting to experience change in their Life
- 1 Evaluating the Decision Integration into church practices (Baptism)
- 0 NEW CREATION
- 1 Awareness of the personal problem and the need for a decision to act
- 2 Openness to the Gospel but remains skeptical -- Positive view of Christians
- 3 Awareness of a Supreme Being but no knowledge of the Gospel
- 4 Hostile towards the church and actively rejects God

HOW

THE METHODS WE WILL USE TO DISCIPLE

WEEKENDS

Building and reinforcing a solid spiritual groundwork

- Gospel understanding and reinforcement
- How/why to read the Bible
- How to commune with God
- Discover your purpose in the mission
- Find and contribute to community
- Share your story

GROUPS

Cultivating a genuine biblical community

- Understanding and applying scripture at a deeper level
- Being known and knowing others
- Create opportunity for one-on-one discipleship
- Support during different seasons of life
- Engagement in the mission

TEAMS

Inspire & equip for a mission-driven mindset

- Model an "others first" mentality
- Opportunity for connection with others
- Create opportunity for one-on-one discipleship
- Simple service paves the way for spiritual service

THE DESTINATION OF THE DISCIPLE

A DISCIPLE IS

- Is first and foremost a humble student of Jesus and scripture
- Is passionately obsessed with the reality of eternal life!
- Engages in regular internal spiritual practices such as meditation, prayer, fasting, and study
- Displays the outward spiritual practices of simplicity, solitude, submission, and service
- Devotes themselves to corporate spiritual practices of confession, worship, guidance, and celebration
- Is intentional in all of their relationships to bring people with them as they follow Jesus
- Despises their own sin and are consistently trusting in Jesus to be freed from it
- Boldly steps out of their comfort zone in faith to do what God has called them to
- Abides in Christ in every season of life
- Displays love and humility towards everyone especially those they disagree with
- Discerns and rightly interprets the word of truth
- Denies themselves and puts the work of God before their own satisfaction
